EDUCATION

California State Polytechnic University, Pomona

May 2026

B.S. Business Administration

- Coursework: Financial Modeling, Corporate Finance Theory, Data Analytics in Finance, Managerial & Financial Accounting, Investments

EXPERIENCE

International Financial Services Intern, The Pacific Bridge Companies

Jun 2026 – Present

Cross-border US-Asia wealth management firm · Monrovia, CA

- Lead the immigration-attorney workstream of a firm-wide advisor recruitment initiative spanning financial advisors, CPAs, investment firms, and immigration attorneys
- Conduct market research and prospecting across four partner channels, building the outreach materials used to open conversations
- Maintain pipeline tracking and recurring reporting that gives firm leadership a current view of partnership progress

Purchasing Agent, Financial Operations, SeatScope LLC

Jan 2022 – Oct 2025

Early operator at a ticket resale startup that scaled past $1M in annual revenue · Remote

- Owned buying, pricing, and cost tracking across four marketplaces (Ticketmaster, StubHub, Vivid Seats, SeatGeek), operating with little supervision in a market where prices moved hourly
- Built pricing, scenario, and sensitivity models in Excel that set purchase limits and target margins, directly shaping how capital was deployed against inventory
- Reconciled P&L across all four marketplaces and ran variance analysis to isolate the cost and pricing drivers behind margin swings

Bookkeeper & Property Improvement Coordinator, Hotel Management Company

2022 – 2023

Independent contractor supporting 4+ properties

- Handled bookkeeping across 4+ properties including accounts payable and receivable, invoicing, and monthly reconciliation
- Reconciled pricing and financial data across properties in Nimble, resolving discrepancies between property-level and consolidated records
- Coordinated Property Improvement Plan documentation, vendor communication, and brand-standard tracking, routing approvals through DocuSign and Adobe Acrobat Sign
